

MISSING

Missing since December 29, 2013 from Camdenton, MO

DONALD LEE ERWIN

Age Missing: 59
Alias/Nickname: Donnie
D.O.B.: August 18, 1954
Height: 5'8"
Weight: 190 lbs.
Hair Color: Brown with Gray
Eye Color: Brown
Gender: Male
Race: Caucasian

Identifying Characteristics: His left leg is amputated above his knee, and he does not use a prosthetic. He has a scar on his left arm from elbow to wrist from a broken arm. He wears his hair long (past his shoulders), usually in a ponytail. He has a full beard and moustache, and is graying.

Clothing/Jewelry: Blue jeans and a light blue shirt with one gray loafer.

Medical: He has a blood disorder which requires daily blood thinners, and suffers from COPD and depression, which also require daily medications.

Circumstances: On December 29, 2013, Erwin woke his wife around 6:00 a.m. to ask for a gift card so that he could go buy cigarettes. He was using his crutches that day. He left the house and said good morning to their neighbor, got in his car – a 2002 silver 4-door Hyundai Elentra with a sunroof and a large wooden cross hanging from the rear-view mirror bearing Missouri license plates MKG-E3P – and drove to the convenience store, less than five miles away. He never arrived, and the car is also missing. The gift card was never used. His whereabouts are unknown, and his case remains unsolved.
