Case #: C3008339

Identifying Characteristics: He is an avid runner. A cross and the Serenity prayer are tattooed on the left side of his rib cage. He also has tattoos of a large blue flower on the outside of his right calf and shin; the words, 'from dust I came to dust I shall return,' and a black Up arrow encased in a black circle. He wears a beard and sometimes wears his shoulder-length hair pulled back.

Clothing/Jewelry: Gray shorts, a gray partial zip-up sweatshirt, size 12 running shoes, a smart watch, and a gold wedding ring. He had a Samsung flip phone and a Ridge wallet with him.

Circumstances: On November 3, 2023, Tyler left on foot from his home on West Burham Street in Lincoln, Nebraska after a dispute with his husband. He never returned home, and his spouse reported him as missing the following morning. His last verified location according to a ping on his cell phone was at his home. His whereabouts remain unknown.
