D.O.B.: August 21, 1971

Alias: Ann Riekenberg,
Ann Reikenberg-Kelley

Hair Color: Auburn

Eye Color: Blue

Height: 5'4"

Weight: 130 lbs.

Gender: Female

Race: Caucasian

Case #: 2008-1891

Identifying Characteristics: She wears glasses or contacts. Her ears are pierced. She has a 3" scar on her left calf.

Clothing/Jewelry: A gold wedding ring with diamond chips, a gold cross necklace, and a gold watch with a black band. She was wearing a long-sleeved black T-shirt and blue jeans.

Circumstances: Ann left her residence in a 1991 Plymouth Voyager van with license plate #3-A8045 on the morning of April 15, 2008. She dropped her children off at school and daycare. During these errands, she, stopped at the Sunmart convenience store. At 8:46 a.m., she used the key fob assigned to her to enter Roosevelt Hall on the Southeast Community College campus where she worked for a cleaning service. She called her employer at 9:43 a.m. to tell them she needed to leave because there was a problem with her children at school. Ten minutes later she called the school, but nobody at the school acknowledged speaking to her. There have been no other sightings or communications since. Foul play is suspected.
