Missing since September 14, 1990 from Portland, OR

KACEY ANN PERRY

Age Missing: 10
Date of Birth: 05/31/80
Height: 4'6"
Weight: 60 lbs
Hair Color: Brown
Eye Color: Blue
Gender: Female
Race: White

Clothing/Jewelry: She was last seen wearing a bright pink blouse with black buttons, blue jeans, black tennis shoes, and black and pink socks.

Circumstances: Unknown. Kacey's photo is shown age-progressed to 26 years. She was last seen at approximately 11:00 p.m. at her father's house on Southeast 37th Avenue near Laurelhurst Park, in Portland. Perry ran away from his house after arguing with him and, saying she was going to her mother's home in Keizer. Perry was reportedly seen hitchhiking a few days after her disappearance in Albany and at Interstate 5 and Interstate 205 near Wilsonville. Perry's belongings later were found in front of the Kienow's Food Store at Southeast 39th Avenue and Division Street. In August, a family friend told police he'd killed the girl and dumped her body near Kelso, Washington. Police found no sign of the girl's remains, and the man recanted his claim on national TV. Her case remains unsolved.
