The talented and charming Jack and Diane of the Nashville Unleashed Television Show, along with very special guests, will be performing in concert on this stop of the nationwide Squeaky Wheel Tour. The Squeaky Wheel Tour® is a grass roots effort to gain attention for hundreds of missing children and adults whose disappearances do not have the scandal, intrigue, or national appeal to garner the attention of the public. The show is open to the public and Admission is Free. Come down to World Music Nashville and enjoy a great show in our very comfy and cozy performance venue.
